To the Shareholders of Banco de A. Edwards:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Banco de A. Edwards as of December 31, 2001, and the related statements of income and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements (which include their related notes) are the responsibility of the Bank's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The financial statements of Banco de A. Edwards as of December 31, 2000, were audited by other auditors whose report dated January 26, 2001, expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile. Those standards require that we plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Bank's management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

These financial statements have been prepared to reflect the individual financial position of Banco de A. Edwards, based on the criteria described in Note N° 1, before proceeding to the consolidation, line by line consolidation, of the financial statements of the subsidiaries detailed in Note N° 5. Consequently, for a proper interpretation of these individual financial statements should be read and analyzed together with the consolidated financial statements of Banco de A. Edwards and Subsidiaries, which are required by generally accepted accounting principles in Chile.

In our opinion, the 2001 financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Banco de A. Edwards as of December 31, 2001 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with the accounting principles described in Note N° 1 and rules established by Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions.

As explained in Note 3 to the financial statements, at the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting held on December 18, 2001, it was agreed to merge by incorporation Banco de A. Edwards into Banco de Chile. Likewise, on December 21, 2001, the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions approved the merger agreed by Banco de Chile and Banco de A. Edwards, and to the dissolution of Banco de A. Edwards. The merger of the banks, made effective on January 1, 2002, included the transfer of all assets and liabilities of the former Banco de A. Edwards to Banco de Chile, the successor for all legal effects. As a result of this merger process, the Bank has recognized in current result of operations, expenses related to the dismissal of certain personnel and other merger related expenses, and voluntary allowances for loan losses as mentioned in Note 3(i) and 3(g), respectively.

BANCO DE A. EDWARDS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2001 AND 2000
(A free translation from the original in Spanish)

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

a) Information provided:

These individual financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting principles issued by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions and with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Chile, except for the investments in affiliates which are recorded in the balance sheet under the equity method and, therefore, have not been consolidated line by line. This procedure does not alter the net income or the equity for the year.

These financial statements have been prepared for the purpose of making an individual analysis of Banco de A. Edwards; consequently, they should be read together with the consolidated financial statements, which are required by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Chile.

For comparative purposes the amounts for the year 2000 have been restated according to changes in the consumer price index, in 3,1%.

b) Interest and readjustments:

Loans, investments and liabilities are shown including accrued interest and readjustments as of the balance sheet date. However, in case the past-due loans and those of doubtful recovery, the Bank has applied a conservative criteria of suspending accrual of interest and readjustments.

c) Price-level restatements

Shareholders' equity, fixed assets and other non-monetary assets and liabilities have been restated according to the variation in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The application of this principle generated a net charge to income of MCh$ 3,821.2 (MCh$ 6,445.8 in 2000). The income statement accounts have not been restated.

d) Foreign currency

Foreign currency assets and liabilities of the Bank have been translated into Chilean pesos at the closing exchange rate informed by the Superintendency of Banks of Ch$ 656.20 to US$ 1 at December 31, 2001 (Ch$ 572.68 to US$ 1 in 2000).

Net exchange gains of MCh$ 1,550.4 (MCh$ 6,865.6 in 2000) included in the statement of income recognize the effect of exchange rate changes in foreign currency assets and liabilities and the results of exchange trading by the Bank.

e) Financial investments

Financial investments with a secondary market are shown to their market value, in accordance with specific instructions issued by the Superintendency of Banks, These instructions require these adjustments to be recognized against income, except for the portion of the investment portfolio classified as permanent in nature may be recorded directly to the equity account "Fluctuations in valuation of financial investments".

The Bank does not have investments classified as permanent as of December 31, 2001 and 2000.

The application of this adjustment generated a net credit to income of MCh$335.5 (MCh$233.8 in 2000), which is shown in the statement of income under "Gains on sales of financial instruments".

Other investment in securities without secondary market are shown at acquisition cost plus there respective accrued interest and indexation adjustment.

f) Derivatives

The Bank values forward currency contracts on a daily basis based on the observed exchange rate, and the resulting gain or loss are recognized to income on accrued basis in accordance with instructions of the Superintendency of Banks, the initial gains or losses corresponding to the difference between the spot and future rate are recognized as deferred assets or liability and amortized to income over the duration of the respective contracts.

Interest rate swaps are valued on a monthly basis, based on the difference between the contracted interest rates, recognizing the resulting gain or loss as credit or debit to income respectively. In addition the Bank has recognized a gain or loss resulting from an adjustment to the market value of the swap portfolio used to hedge the interest rate and foreign exchange risks of the foreign investment portfolio. At December 31, 2001, Other assets include a debit balance amounting to MCh$ 543,6 (credit balance of MCh$ 743,9 in 2000) relating to the mark - to-market adjustment on swap contracts, and included a net credit to income of MCh$ 543,6 in 2001 (a net charge of MCh$ 743,9 in 2000).

g) Lease contracts

Financial lease contracts include the aggregate lease payments receivable, less unearned income and value-added tax, Allowances for losses on lease contracts are shown separately under the caption "Allowance for loan losses".

Assets acquired for leasing contracts are shown under the item "Assets held for leasing", which are shown at restated cost.

h) Bank premises and equipment

Bank premises and equipment are shown at restated cost, net of accumulated depreciation, Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated remaining useful lives of the assets.

i) Investments in other companies:

Shares or rights, in which the Bank hold 10% or more of the share capital or the right to elect or appoint at least one Director or officer, are accounted for using the equity method (V.P.P.).

j) Allowance for loan losses:

Allowances required to cover potential loan losses have been set up in conformity with regulations issued by the Superintendency of Banks and Financial Institutions, Assets are shown net of such allowances, or include a deduction in the case of loans.

The complementary accounts represent the accumulated effect of deferred income taxes, which in conformity with the applicable regulations up to 1998, it was not recorded until January 1, 1999. These complementary asset and liability accounts are amortized over the weighted period of reversal of the corresponding temporary differences, which has been estimated at 2.5 and 4.5 years, respectively.

As a result of the modification in the tax rate established in Law N° 19,753, the Bank and Subsidiaries have recognized the effect of such modification in determining the deferred taxes balances as of December 31, 2001. This change originated a net credit to income for the year of MCh$634.0.
